Read Across America Event at Burnt Mills Elementary School

Rockville, MD - The Montgomery County Education Association, the Maryland State Education Association, and Montgomery County Public Schools are partnering to host a Read Across America event on Monday, March 9, 2026, at 10:00 am at Burnt Mills Elementary School (415 Prelude Drive, Silver Spring, MD, 20901).

Board of Education President Grace Rivera-Oven and Superintendent Dr. Thomas Taylor will join MCEA President David Stein and MSEA President Paul Lemle. These leaders will join Burnt Mills Elementary School educators in reading to students to celebrate Read Across America.

Launched in 1998, Read Across America takes place every March to encourage reading at every grade level, celebrate stories, and foster community in schools.

MCEA represents more than 14,000 classroom teachers, school counselors, speech pathologists, media specialists, and other educators in Montgomery County, MD. MCEA is committed to ensuring that public schools are excellent places for students to learn and for educators to work. For more information, visit mceanea.org.
